Welcome to SAINT GEORGE'S
(Grenada)

Breathe in and relax! Sensual nutmeg, tangy ginger, heady cloves and cocoa...the lush "Spice Island" of Grenada in the Southern Caribbean is renowned for its spice plantations, picking and processing. Cruise passengers are greeted with an exotic array of aromas upon their arrival at Grenada's capital town of St. George's and the heady scent of locally grown spices firmly heralds your arrival in holiday paradise. The vibrant town of St. George's is a key destination for cruise ships during the Caribbean cruise itineraries. Get straight to the heart of Grenada's history with a visit to the oldest and largest spice plantation, the Dougaldston Estate. Grenada ranks among one of the best shipwreck diving locations in the world. For a truly unique art experience, swim or sail to the Underwater Sculpture park; created by international sculptor, Jason de Caires Taylor, this undersea "gallery" is accessible to divers, snorkelers and by glass-bottomed boat and showcases the beautiful and magical world under the sea. Back on dry land, a trip to purchase fresh spices from the marketplace is a must, and wonderful gifts are also found in St. George's old town (Carenage district) with more boutiques found along the waterfront (Esplanade). Do not miss Grand Anse Beach, without doubt one of the most beautiful in the Caribbean, whilst chocoholics may like to squeeze in a visit to the Grenada Chocolate Company, makers of organic dark chocolate - heaven indeed!
